

idea

SHESHORY is an attempt of creative and harmoniously existence between man and environment.

Because the world music and land art are based on this harmony.

components

SHESHORY

- is a music of different times, styles and genres with common feature - ethnic roots

components

SHESHORY

- is a wonderful creatures in the environment

components

SHESHORY

- are the interesting workshops

aims

- To assist conservation and promotion of the cultural heritage, traditional arts and hand crafts in a close link with nature conservation.
- To involve more people of Ukraine in activities connected with ethnic music and land art developing and promoting.
- To support sustainable tourism, environmentally friendly types of rest.
- To present positive experience of environmentally responsible business.
- To assist creation of positive international image of Ukraine.

“Sustainable development in the Carpathians: from local needs to international rules”

an international round table for implementation of the Carpathian convention creates its recommendations

(held in partnership with “Centre for Public Initiative” (Kosiv) in the framework of the ANPED project “Strengthening Public Participation in the Implementation of the Carpathian Convention’, with support of OSCE Project Co-ordinator in Ukraine)

recommendations for better practice in communicating about conservation issues

- To have more information about experience from other countries and places by
 - setting up information networks (taking in account those people who have no access to internet and computers)
 - meetings
 - working experience exchange between experts from different countries, their participation in events in other countries
 - cultural events
- To establish information centres
- To foster experience of other countries and regions and spread it in neighbouring countries
- To promote development of environmentally-friendly households, to advertise advanced technologies
- To intensify information campaigning
- To support sustainable tourism, environmentally friendly types of rest.
- To present positive experience of environmentally responsible business.